

Western Bid, Inc.

Prohibited Product List

Revised and Effective as of January 1, 2012

Before using our Services (as defined in the User Agreement), make sure Western Bid allows the sale of such items. Below, you will see a non-exhaustive list of prohibited and restricted items. Please, also refer to our guidelines prior to selling product on Western Bid's website. Sellers also need to make sure that the sale of their item complies with all laws.

I. GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. Our policies are often based on U.S. laws. Please, make sure you confirm that you are selling an item in conformance with your country's, state's, or province's laws prior to using our Services. Sellers are responsible for making sure their transactions are lawful in both the country of the seller and the country of the buyer. We strongly encourage all sellers to learn about the laws of their own country as well as the countries where they plan to do business.
2. Compliance with U.S. federal and state laws is required. This also means that Sellers are responsible for reporting and payment of any and all sales taxes. Furthermore, this means that the Sellers are responsible for any and all import and export duties as well as any other customs compliance requirements.
3. Sellers are prohibited from selling items that would violate any intellectual property laws, whether in the United States or any other country. Western Bid is committed to providing a safer place to buy and sell items, as well as protecting intellectual property rights. Using intellectual property, such as copyrighted material and trademarks, in an unlawful way is considered infringement, which is against the law and Western Bid's User Agreement.

4. Sellers may only use accurate and legally-compliant descriptions of the product. As a seller, you're ultimately responsible for the legality of any item you offer for sale on Western Bid and the listing describing that item.

5. Sellers can only sell tangible merchandise on Western Bid. "Tangible merchandise" is a physical product that is shipped to the online shopper's physical address.

6. Sellers must comply with User Agreement while using Western Bid's Services.

7. The list of prohibited and restricted items below covers things that Sellers cannot sell while using Western Bid's Services.
